ORDER CORRECTING DECISION AND DIRECTION OF ELECTION

On September 9, 2010, a Decision and Direction of Election issued in the above case, finding, inter alia, that the cost control clerk, Corey Johnson, may vote subject to challenge as the record did not contain sufficient information to make a proper determination of his status. Unfortunately in part IV, Conclusion, the Decision erroneously stated: "I further find that the evidence demonstrates that the cost control clerk should be excluded from the unit as an office clerical employee."

Accordingly, I correct the Decision to strike the current second sentence in part IV, Conclusion and substitute in its place: "I further find that the cost control clerk, Corey Johnson, may vote subject to challenge."

DATED at Seattle, Washington, this 4th day of October, 2010.
